

Keeping It Sacred is...

A center for the exploration of texts and rituals that are accessible, relevant, and empowering. Our mission is to inspire bold, joyful, meaningful living.

We nurture curiosity, deepen compassion, and inspire personal and collective action to bring more light, more justice, more love, and more joy to our world.

We are:

- A 470-member community with an active weekly newsletter readership of 140, and small but mighty and mission-aligned staff.
- A community that spans 11 time zones with active membership in the US, Brazil, the UK, South Africa, Mauritius, Hong Kong, that is expanding every month.
- Affectionately known as The KITS Community in memory of founder Rabbi Heather Miller's beloved grandmother, Fruma "Kit" Endler, who always made sure ancient traditions were accessible, relevant, and empowering.
- A community of people who values the unique experiences each individual brings into our spaces.
- A diverse group with people participating from a variety of ethnic, cultural, religious and socioeconomic backgrounds, various generations, sexual orientations, genders, nationalities, educational levels, professional backgrounds, and interests.
- A community who affirms that our diversity is our strength.

We offer:

- Over 150 LIVE learning sessions & holiday observances each year.
- Webcasts and Podcasts full of content including our People Keeping It Sacred series as well as our A Bit About...the Holidays series.
- LIVE and pre-recorded interfaith dialogues on timely topics.
- Lifecycle rituals, spiritual counseling, and consulting services.
- Actions and statements of solidarity supporting our deep-rooted value placing human dignity at the center of all that we do.

We are committed to:

- A radically inclusive ethic.
- Approaching our work for spiritual wellness through a trauma-informed lens.
- Agile flexibility to respond to participants' interests in topic matters and learning experiences.
- Offering our programming free of charge to uphold the value of accessibility with voluntary financial contributions accepted and greatly appreciated.

Some of our most popular programming has included our:

- Weekly Talmud for All Classes
- Weekly Healing Circle
- Rabbis of the Talmud Series
- Signature Access Judaism Classes
- Monthly Shabbat Services
- Interfaith Passover Seders
- Comprehensive High Holy Day Programming
- Musical Hanukkah Celebrations
